New Orleans, La., Feb. 29.-Pronta wor the fifth race to-day in the colors of Alderman Thomas Carey of Chicago, and immediately changed owners, A. Bellew of St. Louis buying the mare out of the race for $1.000. Pronta was entered to be sold for $1.000. She went up in the betting because of a heavy play on Icicle at post Pronta was lucky to win the race, as The Messanger was catching her at the finish. Pronta broke flying and led all the way. Icicle carried The Messenger wide on the first turn. The Messenger would have probably won the race but for this interference. The Messenger belongs to a half length. In a hard drive.

Cyprienne was under wraps on the back stretch. Short Cake made the running under sufferance for a half mile.

Viperine, the odds-on favorite, had to be hustled along to stail off Modred Law's closing rush in the juvenile race. Viperine broke in front and led all the way. Modred Law got away last, but wis rushed into second place immediately. Viperine and Modred Law entered the attetch neck and neck, but Modred Law swung wide and lost considerable ground. Lev Dorsey and New York had a terrific finish in the fourth. Cochran rode a perfect race on Lev Dorsey. New York made the running and Cochran moved up with Lev Dorsey when the pacemaker began to tire in the last sixteenth.

Maister, after a long let-up, came out and beat his field in a romp in the sixth race. It was the first mount Higgsins has had in over a manth. He broke in front with Maister and made overy post a winning one.

CORBETT, FORMER WORLD'S CHAMPION PUGILIST, SAYS BROTHER JOE WILL HELP CARDINALS GET PENNANT.

JIM CORBETT.

The three Corbetts, James J., Joseph and Thomas, bear a striking resemblance to each other. The trio will probably locate here during the "World's Fair." Joe will pitch for the Cardinals, while Jim and Tom contemplate opening : cafe.

James J. Corbett, former heavy-weight champion pugillst of the world, arrived in St. Louis yesterday afternoon.

Jim is enthusiastic over his brother Joe's return to major league company.

"I had a letter from Joe yesterday." said Corbett, "and he says he is in better condition than be has been for yeara I saw him pitch several games last fall, and if he goes as well in the National League as he did no the Const, the Cardinals will have a splendid chance to land a good blace in the pennant race.

"Joe has speed, curves and control. He is also a fast boy on his feet, and is good on the bases.

"Collett season he got a bad start. This year it will be different, as he is training faithfully for the opening of the season.

"Joe will not come to St. Louis to report. He will go direct to Houston with Shay."

Corbett said that if it was at all possible he would be lack in the city to witness the opening game.

"That fellow Murror" continued Jim, "Well, he showed that he was "the goods' in his fight with Sharkey, didn't he? Of the same kind of fellow now that Jeff was then."

stages of the contest, and it was but a question of time when Suilivan would have to quit.

The fourth round nearly saw the end of the contest, and only by taking the full count on four different occasions did Suilivan manage to pull through.

The main feature of the fight was the great amount of in-fighting.

They hung together for a minute at a time, using either hand that they could get free. Corbett proved laimself very much superior at this style of fighting and he seemed to punch harder from a shorter distance.

After the disastrous fourth round Suillvan's ability to come up in the successding round was a surprise. He seemed to have taken a new lease of life, but it was only a fiash in the pan and did not prove of any benefit to him, as he received more punishment without any chance of ultimate success.

The contest on the whole was one-

Jimmy Britt was an interested spectator at the ringside, figuring on his chances to beat the champion feather-weight.

The general opinion of the sporting element which has seen both men in action is that Corbett will be the favorite in the betting and that Britt, whilst giving him a great fight, will not prove to be the winner.

With Pitcher Jack Powell.

James R. McAleer, manager of the Browns, and Charley Nichols, the Cardinal leader, are expected in St. Louis early this week. McAleer may arrive at American League headquarters to-day, while Nichols is scheduled to pay a visit to National League headquarters to-morrow.

They will make all arrangements for the departure of their respective teams to the "Sunny South," which takes place early next week.

McAleer's presence is awaited with much interest by followers of the Browns. It is now reported that he will patch up the pitcher and manager will discuss the affair.

Mr. Hedges, the president of the team, is now in New York. He will attend the meeting of the American League Schedule Committee there this week.

Nichols and McFarland will also talk over the salary question. As their difference is not a large one, the chances for a compromise look bright.

They went a clinch. Sullivan missed left for the face, and the champion countered with left and right swings to the face. Corbett began his usual game of talking and "jollying" his antagonist, and then as quick as a flash drove his right to the body, following it with a left to the face. Corbett has Soillyan laughing at his witty badinage. The champion missed right and left swing for the body and Suillyan just missed a vicious left swing that just grazed Corbett's face. Suilivan planted a right swing over the kidneys and received a straight arm to the face.

After landing a straight left on Corbett's nose, Suilivan went to the floor for a count of seven from a well directed right flush on the jaw. He was up quickly, however, and previous to the sound of the bell mixed it viciously with the champion, but received much the worse of the rally. It was Corbett's round.

ECZEMA

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 29.—Champion Feather-Weight "Young Cerbett" had no difficulty in retaining his laurels to-night, defeating Dave Sullivan of New York in the eleventh round of a scheduled twenty-round contest.

Corbett left the ring without a mark, while on the other hand Sullivan received a terrific beating, only the merciful action of Referee Graney in stopping the contest saving the New Yorker from have contest saving the New Yorker from have ROUND FOUR.

ROUND FOUR. Sullivan jabbed the champion on the face with straight left and some fast infighting followed, Corbett planting his fighting followed, Corbett planting his
visiously to the jaw and Suilivan resorted to in-fighting, in which he was worsted.
Suilivan planted two hard rights on the champion's ear and the men refused to break. They battled breast to breast, both giving and inking hard face blows. Finally Corbett broke it up and chopped a victous right to the jaw, sending Suilivan to the floor for the count of nine.
Suilivan came up groggy and a left upper-cut to the jaw once more sent him to
